11. From the Secretary Anjuman E. Mahadeviah. Dariatal Islam. Bannur.

Letter dated 20-2-1924.

Forwards list of members of the Association & states that the prescribed form has not been received by him.

Draft forwarding another form & requesting the Secretary to forward the same duly filled up immediately is put up for approval.

The list of members forwarded will be sent to the press to be published along with the other lists of Association members, after deleting the names of non-Mahomedan members, who are not eligible to vote.

Note. The Act has not yet been enforced. and so it is a matter for consideration whether the lists need be sent to the Asso for publication. A copy of the form may however be sent at the same time as asked for and the question of recognition may be considered as also publication of the lists.

I think you can state the views of the Govt. Officers regarding the publication of the lists.

Forward lists of members of the respective Associations.

Both lists contain names of persons who are not members of the Muhammedan Community. These names will if approved, be scored out before the lists are forwarded to the Press.

Submitted for orders.-

There are non-Muhammadan members in the list of associations. Whether they can vote is a point for orders. If votes are they cannot- The associations recognised as they are for purposes of representation of minority Community, ought to contain only Muhammadan members or when there is a sprinkling of other castes, the latter may not exercise their right of voting. Otherwise, the non-Muhammadans

This position was not contemplated by Govt. It was not anticipated that an assocn. Specially representing Muhammadans would contain members belonging to other communities. In the present circumstances, the suggestion made above that voting and candidature should be confined to the community which is going to be represented may be approved.
